

April 4, 2023

I reached out to Stevens Food Group because of its reputation. As a small business, we are very intentional with how we allocate money and resources. Stevens Food Group has been an asset to our company. Their partnership has allowed our team to reduce paper costs, negotiate more aggressively with vendor contracts, and utilize their internal resources, while consistently being accessible for our business.

It has been my experience with Stevens Food Group that they are passionate about what they do and the clients they serve. I recommend all local businesses to reach out to them for your food service needs.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Sanjay Patel". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Sanjay Patel

Director of Operations